

Thursday 4th March is World Book Day. To celebrate this, I would like to see if we could all have a bit of fun.

I don't know about you, but I have recently really enjoyed watching the Masked Singer. Which gave me the idea for the Masked Reader...

This is what I would like you to do:

- Turn yourself into a masked character – you can make a mask, use a mask you already have or even use face paint.
- Decide on a name for your masked character
- Choose three facts about yourself which can be used as clues
- Choose a BFG word you would like to read e.g. Snozzcumber
- Film yourself reading that word out while wearing your mask – remember to try and disguise your voice
- Upload the video to your portfolio on class dojo
- Send me masked character's name as well as your three clues.

I will then put a video together for you all to watch. Your job is try to guess who is behind each mask reading the word. I will also put a sheet together for you to record your guesses. I wonder, will you be able to guess each masked reader's identity.

I will aim to put the video and recording sheet together on Tuesday 2nd March. If you would like to take part, please can you send me what is needed by Monday 1st March.

Thank you

Mr Glover
