A Warm Welcome Back

We hope you all had a restful half term break. It has been lovely to welcome you and your children back to school this week – seeing all the children excited to return to school has been very rewarding.

We have a very busy half term ahead with lots of work to cover in classes but also with the build up to Christmas. No doubt, teachers will be soon casting parts and practising songs for the planned Christmas Performances.

This year, EYFS and KS1 pupils will be performing a nativity play called, 'A Twinkly Nativity' while KS2 pupils will be performing, a play called 'No One Wraps Like An Elf'.

Dates for the performance can be found in the upcoming school events/diary dates section below and information about how to acquire tickets can be found on the letter sent home this afternoon.

Our new value for this half term is PEACE and this will be reflected on during weekly worship. However, this week we have been learning about Remembrance and Rev. Clayton came into school on Thursday to hold a special worship with the children.

Children from Jaguar class were also invited to represent the school at a special service at the church this morning along with members of the local community.

SCHOOL UPDATES

A busy week ahead....

Anti-Bullying Week

Nationally, next week, schools will be promoting Anti-Bullying through assemblies and activities in class following the theme of 'Speaking Out' to stop bullying. To start the week off, on Monday we are encouraging all children (and Staff) to wear 'odd socks.' This is to symbolise that we are all different and differences should be celebrated.

Children in Need

As well as being Anti-Bullying Week, on Friday 17th November, it is also Children in Need. We are inviting everyone to wear something spotty in recognition of this. You may also want to support this great cause by donating using our just giving page using the link below:
