IN THE NEWS

Highlights of the week

Snow Leopards

This week, Nursery have been learning about the life cycle of a butterfly through a book called The Hungry Caterpillar.

Panda Class

Panda class have been learning all about the Easter story and the days of Holy week. They have even made their own El Salvador Crosses.

Tiger Class

The children in Tiger class have been learning all about Charles Darwin and this week have written a letter from his point of view as if he was writing home to his relatives.

Rhino Class

Rhino have been busy writing poetry this week, based around a story of a visit to the zoo. They have been focusing on writing rhyming couplets and have had some great success.

Jaguar Class

This week, Jaguar class have been researching information about Anne Frank in order to be able to write a formal obituary.

More Sporting Success:

Over the past few weeks, we have had more sporting successes. You can read more about them by clicking on the sporting links below:

Well done to everyone involved.

SCHOOL UPDATES

Tiger Class Educational Visit

On Monday 18th March, Tiger class will be visiting Shrewsbury Museum during the school day. Please ensure children are wearing school uniform and have a coat, a packed lunch and a drink. No book bags are required.

Easter Service at Church

On Tuesday 19th March, we will be holding our Easter Service at church at 9.30am. We would love you to come along and join us. This year we are focusing on how Easter is celebrated differently around the world. As well as celebrating Easter, we will also be presenting the achievement awards for the spring term at the end of the service.

Parents Evenings

A reminder that parents evenings will be taking place next week on Tuesday 19th and Thursday 21st March. Appointments times run from 3.30pm to 5.50pm and are strictly 10 minutes each. If you have not made an appointment then use the link below to access the booking page on the school website. Book Here

Quote of the Week

After a week of sharing last week's quote each day, we were able to observe many children demonstrating its meaning towards others, especially at play, which has been so lovely to see.

Next week, we will focusing on a different quote, although the key message behind it is still kindness.

This is next week's quote:
